Union District Will Consider Sewer Annex

Willingness of the Union Sanitary District to annex the property immediately east and southeast of Niles was expressed at a meeting Wednesday evening when the district directors met with a number of residents of the area under discussion.

Headed by Jack Parry, who, with Vernon Ellsworth, had made an unofficial plan for the area and an estimate of assessed valuation and bonding capacity, the group from Niles learned that the Union District sewer system is adequate to serve the area.

In extending its lines to Fremont Avenue last year, the district installed a 10-inch main pump in preparation for the eventuality of such an annexation.

Chairman George Coit of the Union Sanitary District stated that the board would meet in the near future to consider surveying the proposed area of annexation and determining estimates of sewering costs.

If the plan would prove feasible, circulation of a petition for annexation could then follow. Twenty-five per cent of the signatures of property owners would be necessary for the calling of an election for annexation.

The area under consideration for annexation includes Canyon Heights, the Ellsworth Tract, highway property east to Morrison Canyon Road, and the land between the highway, Walnut Way, Fremont Avenue and the Niles-Centerville Road.

APRICOT OUTLOOK TO BE REVIEWED

Alameda County apricot growers will hear Matt Triggs of the California Farm Bureau Federation next Tuesday, at a regular Eden-Washington Farm Center meeting at the Washington Union High School cafeteria.

Triggs will present the outlook for apricots in 1949, the legislative program in Sacramento affecting all growers, and the proposed Apricot Marketing Program.

Also on the program J. T. Alexander will give a demonstration of the latest in fire fighting equipment for the home and farm.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. and Manuel Abreu of Alvarado, chairman of the Farm Center, will preside.

All interested apricot growers are invited to attend.

FORMER RESIDENTS IN BAD TRAFFIC ACCIDENT

Former residents of the township, Bob and Lillian Nelson, who will be remembered by former co-workers at the P. G. & E. plant, were the victims of a bad traffic accident when they were driving along San Pablo a week ago Wednesday. They were both taken to the emergency hospital with concussions and cuts and bruises. Their car was completely wrecked.

THREE HOMES HIT IN WEEK-END RAID BY 'CROWBAR CARL'

Sheriff's deputies today are investigating three Washington township house burglaries committed here this week in what may be the second visit to the area of the "Crowbar Carl" gang.

The burglaries, reported late Monday afternoon, were staged in Warm Springs and Centerville. All three homes were vacant, one up for sale, one an estate of a deceased couple, and the third vacant while the owners were on a trip.

Entry into each of the three was gained in a similar manner, through jimmied windows. Only cash or saleable articles were taken, after the homes were thoroughly ransacked.

The first burglary was committed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ormonde, killed in a December auto accident in Redwood City, and was discovered by a neighbor, Frank Vargas, who saw a widow shade cocked and investigated. A small amount of women's apparel was missing.

The second theft occurred at a home belonging to Mike and Marie Moraites, San Francisco, and was discovered by a prospective buyer, Joseph Vassallo, of Oakland. Apparently nothing was taken from the house, which is up for sale.

The Centerville burglary was committed at the home of Joseph Kirkish, 348 South Main Street. The crime was discovered by a gardener who saw the front door open and notified Mrs. Lois Paul. Mrs. Paul and Kirkish's daughter, Annette, investigated, and estimated that $160 worth of silverware, sewing machine, jewelry and a suitcase had been taken.

Deputies Douglas Roraback and Henry Vervais said the burglars' method of operation appeared to be the same as the "Crowbar Carl" gang currently operating in this area.

DECOTO BURGLARY NETS $5,500 LOOT

Southern Alameda County felt its first taste of the "Crowbar Carl" gang of Bay Area house burglars last week-end, as more than $5,500 worth of cash and valuables were stolen from the home of a Decoto businessman.

Robbed was the home of Fred G. Sanchez, 34, of 407 Whipple Road, Decoto businessman. The burglary was staged Sunday evening.

Forcing a rear bedroom window, the burglar made away with approximately $3,000 in cash, two shotguns valued at $220, and a gold wristband worth $50. Also missing were 36 negotiable checks totaling $2,306.18.

The burglary is believed to have been the first committed by the gang in the Decoto area since it began operations in this area shortly after the first of the year.

NEW SCOUT HOUSE PLANS APPROVED

Plans for a new Centerville Scout House were discussed and approved last Monday evening, at a special meeting of the Centerville Troop Committee.

Also during the evening Ralph Boliba was welcomed as a new committeeman. Boliba and Bob Walstra replace Manuel Correia and Jimmie George on the committee. George recently was appointed Scout Advancement chairman for Washington Township.

G.I. TAX EXEMPTION ADVICE AVAILABLE

Applications for veterans tax exemptions may be filed next week at the Veterans Memorial Building in Niles, when a deputy tax assessor will hold office hours Monday through Friday evenings.

The deputy, M. C. Dassel, will be available from 7 to 9 o'clock.

CONCERT HERE

Jane Hobson, glamorous mezzo-soprano, will appear at the auditorium of Washington High School next Wednesday evening, March 16, in the third and final concert to be given in the Community Concert series this season.

HARD LUCK HITS TOWNSHIP FAMILY

A Centerville family of five children walked home from the Centerville school Wednesday with all the buoyancy you'd expect youngsters to have after being released from a day of study.

Their merriment was short-lived, however, for in arriving home, they found no home. There was just a pile of ashes where their one-room home had stood.

Located back of the Chevrolet garage on the Lagorio property, the dwelling had been burnt to the ground.

The children, motherless, sought consolation from their father, Mr. Arias, who has been caring for the youngsters—the oldest is in the fourth grade—since their mother's death.

Homeless now, as well as jobless, he is not discouraged, however. He has learned to take trouble, and is out now scouting around for a new home for his little brood—and for a job.

DOLLY SILVEIRA IS LOCAL WINNER IN LIONS CONTEST

Dolly Silveira, senior student at Washington Union High School, will compete with students from Hayward, Castro Valley, San Lorenzo and Pleasanton next Thursday evening, in zone competition in the Lions Club public speaking contest.

She was judged winner of the local contest Tuesday night, besting Ellen Freitas and Betty Jacinto for the honor.

The trio spoke on "The United Nations—Safeguard of Human Liberty," topic for the contest this year.

Miss Jacinto and Miss Freitas tied for second place in the contest, judged by the Rev. Donald Kirkbride, Father James O'Connor, and Jim Ritch. Other officials included Art Cotton, timekeeper, and Lowell Creighton and Gene Manning, tellers.

The speeches followed a dinner and regular Lions meeting, held at the International Kitchen. Parents of some of the contestants were in the audience.

Should Miss Silveira win the zone, regional and district contests, she will represent the local Lions Club at the interstate finals at the District Convention in June, at which time the prize will consist of an $800 cash scholarship. Suitable prizes will be awarded the six finalists.

Bob Moore is Lions Club president.

LEGION OBSERVES 30TH ANNIVERSARY

The 30th anniversary of the founding of the American Legion was observed in Washington Township Tuesday evening by a dinner and entertainment program staged in the Veterans Memorial Building in Niles.

The party was staged by the Legion Auxiliary for the Township Legion Post, and got under way at 6:30.

Chairman for the affair was Mrs. Stella Benbow, who was assisted by Marie Duarte, Angie Furtado, Margaret Jones, Mrs. Carl Mohn, Genevieve Smith, Florence Graber, and others.

A huge birthday cake followed the ham dinner, and an entertainment program was held after the banquet.

STATE TAX DEPUTY IN NILES MONDAY

A state income tax deputy will be stationed in the Central Bank, Niles, on Monday, March 14, for the convenience of local taxpayers.

All single persons with $3,000 or more income, and married persons with a combined income of $4,500 are required to file a state return.

Charles J. McColgan, state franchise tax commissioner, advises taxpayers to file early and avoid last minute delays.

LEUKEMIA VICTIM IS HONORED BY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Word has been received in Niles that a scholarship has been established at Manteca Union High School in memory of a former township girl, who died a victim of leukemia at her home on Washington's Birthday.

The girl is Loretta Lee Knudsen, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Knudsen of Manteca, who succumbed to the illness after a 10 months fight for her life.

A student at San Jose College until the time of her death, she had been active in high school activities, and was valedictorian of her graduating class. As a junior student her classmates had elected her the "most typical high school girl."

The scholarship, in the amount of $50, has been established by the senior class at the high school to be given a graduating senior for use in further education at college. It is hoped the scholarship will become perpetual.

Miss Knudsen was the niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ferry, Mrs. Marie Vroutecos, and John Moura, all of Niles.

She was born in the township and attended Niles Elementary School before moving with her parents to Manteca nearly 10 years ago.

JAMES M. BREWER SERVICES TODAY

Funeral services will be held in Irvington today at 2 p.m. for James Morris Brewer, 89, native of Irvington and member of a pioneer township family, who passed away at his home Wednesday evening.

A retired rancher and railroad man, he resided at the corner of Third Street and San Jose Highway, Irvington.

Rites will be said from the Berge Mortuary beginning at 2 o'clock, and interment will be in the I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Irvington.

Mr. Brewer has been ill for several weeks.

He was the loving husband of Willametta M. Brewer, and father of Myla May Brewer of Irvington and Lester L. Brewer of San Francisco. He was the grandfather of Gordon L. and Donald J. Brewer, also of San Francisco, and was the brother of the late Henry Clay Brewer.

NILES CHAMBER ASKS STOP LIGHTS

Installation of automatic stop signals at the intersection of Niles Canyon and Mission San Jose highways was recommended this week by the Niles Chamber of Commerce, meeting Tuesday at the International Kitchen.

The action, which will be communicated to the state Division of Highways and the Highway Patrol by Secretary Vernon Ellsworth, was taken in view of increased week-end traffic at this point.

It was considered that the present caution lights on the Mission Highway are insufficient at periods of peak traffic, and that traffic should be brought to a complete stop at intervals to allow crossing of the highway. President John Brahmst conducted the meeting.

RAIN THIS WEEK UPS SEASON TOTAL

Rain was noted each day except Sunday. The precipitation, added to last week's 1.55 inch, brought the season total to 9.76 inches, a respectable total for this time of year.

With more rain slated next week, creeks throughout the township are reported running, and the outlook from the standpoint of the farmer is "improving rapidly."

Thursday .43 inch rainfall was recorded, while .37 fell Friday. Saturday .12 inch fell, while the Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday total was .37.

Gravel Plants to Be Controlled In County by 'Use Permits'

Uncontrolled, indiscriminate excavation of gravel in Alameda County will no longer be allowed, as a result of adoption yesterday of an ordinance by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors. The ordinance, which will become effective in 30 days, will require use permits for the "operation or establishment of a quarry, gravel pit or mine."

The supervisors' action yesterday climaxes efforts of several years by those residents of Washington Township who have deplored the destruction of good farm land by gravel operations.

The new ordinance, which is an amendment to the County Zoning Ordinance and also defines a number of other land uses for which permits will be required, was passed upon the motion of Supervisor Chester E. Stanley. The action followed a hearing at which Publisher L. R. Batman of The Register spoke of the necessity of the regulation as means for conservation of level farm land.

The control of gravel operations by the county has been a subject of editorial concern by The Register for five years.

Passage of the ordinance will not affect present gravel excavation operations. It will, however, require county permits for future operations.

CROOKS WATCH OUT IN CENTERVILLE!

Anyone acting suspiciously around the business section of Centerville at night, with perhaps the idea of a little burglary, would probably get the surprise of his life.

Centerville has a night watchman—and has had for several years—but now he is not a man; she is a woman!

Homer T. James, who has held the post, is ill in a veterans hospital. In his absence his wife, Opal, is carrying on with the night watchman's duties. And at the Centerville Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting Wednesday it was reported that she is doing a good job.

WALTON APPOINTED SCHOOL TRUSTEE

Allan Walton, Centerville businessman, this week was appointed to the Centerville Elementary School Board of Trustees, filling the vacancy created by the recent death of Manuel Oliveira.

The appointment was made by County Superintendent of Schools Vaughn D. Seidel.

Walton, a graduate of Centerville Elementary and Washington Union High School, and the University of California, class of 1925, will serve out the unexpired term, which runs through 1951.

MORE HOBBIES—FEWER HEADACHES

"Hobbies or Headaches" was the topic of a talk given by Bill Graves at the pot-luck supper given Wednesday evening by the Decoto P.T.A.

Mr. Graves' address, which was made before a large crowd of parents and teachers, centered around the premise that if more people had more hobbies, there would be fewer headaches in the world, as the pursuit of a hobby is a balm to the soul as well as to the whole physical being.

A display of hobbies of Decoto residents was on view for all the visitors to see, including displays of woodwork, ceramics, stamp-collections, etc.

HOBBY GARDENING

Gardening as a hobby was explained to Niles Rotarians yesterday by J. A. "Mac" McDonald, local club member, who has made breeding of daffodils his hobby.

DINNER TO HONOR 'RANDY' GRIFFIN

R. A. Griffin, former trustee of the Irvington Elementary School, will be honored at a dinner to be held Tuesday, in the school cafeteria.

The affair is being staged by members of the school faculty, and will begin at 7 p.m.

Dinner will be prepared by Mrs. Irma Belding and her staff, and will be served by eighth grade girls. The girls also will be in charge of decorations.

Griffin resigned from the school board last December, after serving nearly six years. John R. Gomes was appointed to succeed him.

Other members of the board are Dr. E. M. Grimmer and Alfred Peixoto. Gus Robertson is school principal.

DALLAS PAUL NEW C. OF C. PRESIDENT

Dallas Paul was elected president of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce Wednesday by a unanimous vote of members present at the club's regular luncheon meeting.

Elected to serve with him were K. P. Suhnel, vice-president; Ralph Goodwin, recording secretary; Louis Cardoza, financial secretary; and Erle Hygelund, treasurer.

TEENAGER RUMPUS PARTY IS SLATED

A teenager rumpus party will be held tomorrow evening starting at 8 o'clock at Ford Hall in Niles.

Girls will dress as tiny tots for the affair, and will bring a decorated box containing two sandwiches and cake. Boys, on the other hand, will dress in cords and overalls, and will bring a quarter each, with which to purchase food boxes from their girl friends.

Games will highlight the event, and teenagers will make voice recordings, which they will be able to keep.

CURRENT AFFAIRS TOPIC ANNOUNCED

"Ten Years of Strife" will be the topic under discussion next Tuesday evening at a meeting of a current affairs class at Washington Evening High School.

The class, under the direction of Jud Taylor, began March 1 and will continue for three meetings.

Subjects are brought out by motion pictures, lectures, and class discussion.

Meetings are held from 7 to 9 o'clock in the visual education room on campus.

TOMATO GROWERS TO MEET THURSDAY

"Field Seeding of Tomatoes" will be the topic to be discussed by Vernon Miller, assistant farm advisor, at a meeting for tomato growers Thursday, March 17. The meeting will be held at the visual education room, Washington Union High School, Centerville, and will start promptly at 8 p.m.

Miller reports that tomato growers are showing much interest this year in the practice of field seeding. When the seeding is done between March 25 and April 15, harvest of the canning crop can be started about as early as crops that are transplanted around May 1. Yields from the two methods in most of the canning areas of California have been comparable, and in some cases the field seeding has shown marked advantages.

All tomato growers are invited to attend this meeting and discuss the advantages and disadvantages of seeding tomatoes directly in the field.

CHICKENPOX BESETS 25 PERSONS HERE

Chickenpox continued to hold the "most popular disease" rating in southern Alameda County again this week, according to a report on contagious diseases made today by Dr. James C. Malcolm, M. D., county health officer.

A total of 163 persons in unincorporated areas of the county have succumbed to chickenpox since January 1, while 110 have come down with mumps and 65 have suffered measles attacks.

Hunting Dogs Help Conservation

The following article, written by Jack Iverson of Salinas, a cousin of Mrs. W. H. Ford of Niles, appeared in the Salinas "Californian." The editor thought it of particular interest to this area so is reprinting it herewith.

VALUE OF HUNTING DOGS FOR CONSERVATION IS EXPLAINED

Sportsmen of this state are becoming increasingly apprehensive over the future of quail and pheasant hunting in California. We now have more than ever before and our birds are becoming more scarce. The present ratio of birds to hunter suggests a time soon when our many "no hunting" signs will serve to describe rather than restrict. This situation can be corrected only through the fullest utilization of all resources implemented by wise and far-sighted management and whole-hearted cooperation.

The state fish and game authority and our many sportsmen's organizations are doing what they can to help. They are raising and planting birds to supplement the wild stock, they promote predator control, provide better range facilities and encourage compliance with hunting regulations. These steps are important and necessary but they are not enough.

RETRIEVE ALL BIRDS

We must learn to harvest our game crop as efficiently as possible if the sport is to survive. Altogether too many birds are shot down and not retrieved. If the number of pheasants and quail lost annually could be compiled I'm sure it would nearly equal that of those actually taken. The cover in which we find these birds difficult and their running and hiding characteristics make the recovery of cripples practically impossible. This factor should receive prime consideration in any conservation program. Its importance cannot be over-emphasized. If we must remove two birds from the available supply in order to get one, it follows that our game resources could be, in effect, doubled by 100 per cent efficiency in finding birds which have been shot.

This problem is one which must, for obvious reasons, be left to the discretion of the individual hunter. It would be impossible to enforce any set of laws which would require a person to accept responsiblity for game not in possession. There are, however, rules which, if carefully observed, would help much. They are:

GOOD POINTS

1. Don't shoot birds out of range or too close.
2. Don't shoot over cover which does not offer at least a reasonable chance for recovery.
3. Choose your gun and loads to insure the cleanest kills.
4. Learn the flying habits of the bird you are hunting.
5. Do not shoot over water unless you are prepared to swim if necessary.
6. Mark where your bird has fallen and hurry immediately to that spot.

However, knowing the impetuous enthusiasm of the average hunter I'm dubious if such restrictions would be consistently adhered to. The only "cure all" is the use of a good dog.

GOOD DOG IS ANSWER

Therein lies the real solution. A good dog will not only make your hunting easier, more pleasant, and more productive, he will also reduce to a minimum the birds you will lose. Your dead birds he will find easily. In the case of your cripples, he may have to work longer and harder but he'll usually find them too. He'll retrieve birds from cover impossible to you and water or mud will be no obstacle. In fact you'll find a dog to be the handiest gadget in the field. No hunter should be without one.

I have hunted with dogs for many years. During this time, I have hunted once without a dog. Never again. I appreciate too much of the convenience of having an eager and efficient companion to beat the brush and tules while I cover the operation from a comfortable vantage point and I enjoy too much the proud thrill experienced when my pointer, racing in wide arches before me suddenly snaps to a statuesque point.

I hunt for the pleasure. The cold meat thus gathered is secondary, however, if I kill a bird I want to get it. Here the dog changes from a luxury to a necessity. He can find them and too often I can't.

GET FULL KILL

Last year, while hunting pheasants near Meridian in the Sacramento Valley, our party shot down 28 birds, all of which when retrieved. Had it not been for my pointer "Blondy" and a friend's short-hair we reasonably would have lost approximately half of these birds we were hunting in tules and tall rice stubble and many of these birds were cripples. In fact throughout the season I do not recall having last a single bird, pheasant or quail.

I recall my setter "Chum" having trailed a cripple over 500 yards of rice cover to retrieve the bird unharmed except for a broken wing tip. Upon innumerable occasions I have located downed birds for hunters who were ready to give them up as lost.

Often when hunting was poor the dogs have returned with crippled birds, which had been lost by other parties to help fill our limits. These cripples practically always fall easy prey to predators. I could go on indefinitely describing instances in which my dogs have made available birds which would have otherwise been lost.

HAVE MANY ASSETS

The scenting qualities of dogs, their ability to travel easily in terrain practically impassable to man plus their eager willingness to please and their unbelievable endurance and intelligence explains why dogs have been the favorite companions of hunters for centuries. When game was plentiful they were valued for they added to the sport and decreased the difficulties.

Now, with the problem of conservation of prime importance, their desirability approaches the point of necessity. If we are to attain full effectiveness in the utilization of our too limited resources we should not unnecessarily add the burden of our own limtations. Every hunting party should include at least one good dog.

Many hunters keep untrained dogs for pets. It costs no more to keep a trained dog and he will make a better pet. Also he will repay in many ways the cost and care invested in him.

SVSDA IS HELP

The Salinas Valley Sporting Dog Association was formed two years ago for the purpose of encouraging the use and ownership of hunting dogs and to aid in their training. Its membership, which originally numbered 19, now exceeds 90 and is still growing. The club has provided training facilities and a training program. It sponsors an annual field trial in which the number participate enthusiastically. Its meetings are well attended and its members enthusiastic. Through the influence of this tic. Throught the influence of this association the quality of the hunting dogs of the district has been greatly improved. In fact some of the best breeding in the country is represented.

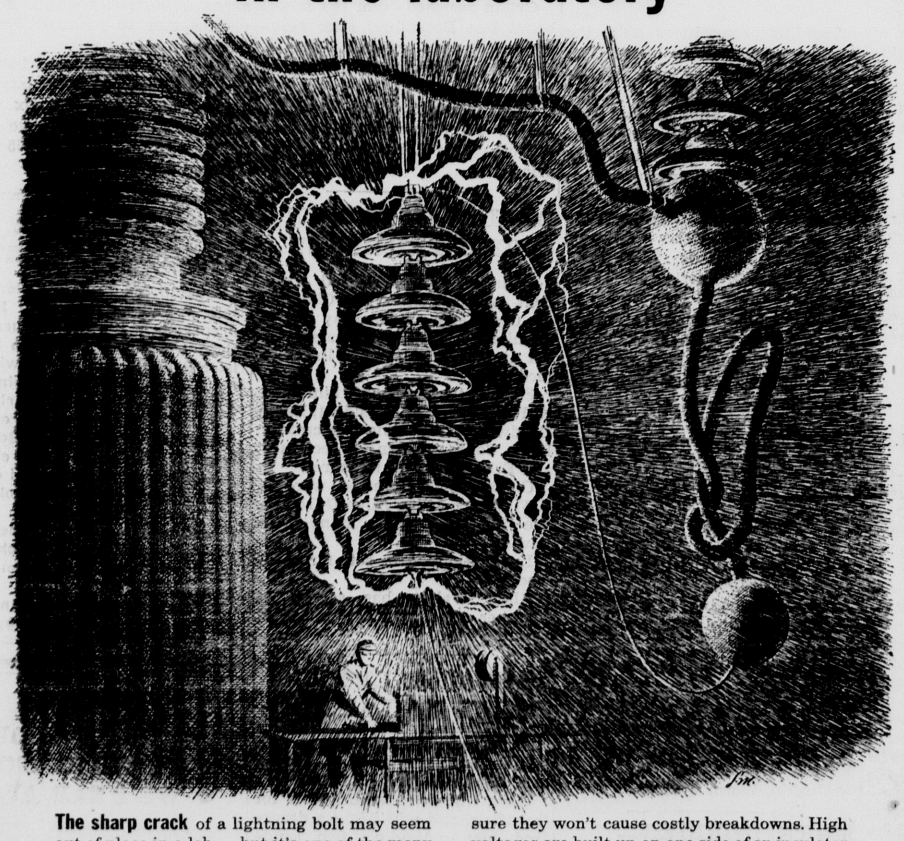

Marked improvement has been shown in the performance of members and dogs. The over-all result has been exceedingly gratifying. Here we have an established pattern for what should become a statewide project. A project which would, in the final analysis, prove to be of immeasurable value in aiding in the solution of the conservation problems while at the same time repaying the individual participants in increasing interest and pleasure.

P.G. and E. makes lightning in the laboratory

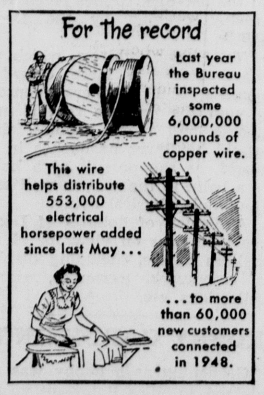

The sharp crack of a lightning bolt may seem out of place in a lab... but it's one of the many ways P. G. and E.'s Bureau of Tests and Inspection helps keep your electric bills among the lowest in the nation. Technicians give this "trial by lightning" to power-line insulators to make sure they won't cause costly breakdowns. High voltages are built up on one side of an insulator until the electricity arcs around it through the air...a miniature lightning flash. If the insulator "punctures" or if the flash comes too soon at too low a voltage, the insulator is rejected.

The life of power poles depends on rot preventives below ground. P. G. and E. tests these, too... along with thousands of other things such as the breaking strength of cross-arms and the conducting efficiency of the wire they support.

Lower electric bills and dependable service are the result of these and other tests. They all add up to longer lasting, harder working, more economical materials in P. G. and E.'s generating plants and transmission lines.

DIAMOND-HUSKIES FACE BUSY WEEK IN BASEBALL WARS

Coach Irving Hird will lead his "herd" to Bellarmine Prep today, there to do battle in the second baseball encounter of the season.

Tuesday Washington lost an 11-0 eyewash to Lincoln High of San Jose, while the Frosh-Soph team took a 6-2 dumping.

But Hird isn't downcast concerning this spring's hopes, although he doesn't expect to break into the win column consistently until about midway through the spring.

Inexperience looms the toughest problem at present, along with finding a capable first baseman. And in line with this Hird has scheduled a full week of practice tilts, to gain experience for his squad before the S.C. V.A.L. opens a week from Tuesday.

Monday, provided the local diamond is in shape, the Huskies will meet Half Moon Bay at Centerville, and Tuesday will entertain the Hayward Farmers here. Wednesday Washington meets Livermore there, and Thursday Hird will send his charges against San Jose High at San Jose Municipal Stadium. Then, after a four-day layoff, league play will open with Santa Clara.

From then on, league play will continue on a bruising two-a-week schedule through early May, with but two more practice games on the Washington schedule. April 9, the Huskies will engage Santa Cruz in a doubleheader there, and April 21 will entertain Bellarmine here. This season, for the first time, S.C.V.A.L. play will be on a double-round basis, with home-and-home series between each team.

SPORTS

HUSKIES THIRD: PUPS SIXTH IN LEAGUE WINDUP

The Washington Huskies were tied in third place in final S.C. V.A.L. basketball standings this season, with a five win, three loss record for the year.

It was the best seasonal record in several years for the Huskies, who have been staging a comeback from a wartime basketball slump.

The Huskies lost their league encounters to Campbell, San Jose Tech and Los Gatos, but were the only team in the S.C.V.A.L. to trounce Fremont, league champions.

In the 130 division Washington Puppies wound up the season with a two win, six loss record, to occupy seventh place in final standings.

In the scoring race Joe Sankene lead the Huskies, with 62 points scored in eight league contests, followed by Bill Ramsey with 49, and Bill Pereira with 36. For the Puppies Armando Morlos led the parade with 71 counters, followed by Ralph Juhl with 50 and Al Castillo with 33. Sankene was the eighth highest varsity scorer in the league, and Morlos was seventh in the B division.

In league games the Huskies scored a total of 241 points, while 247 markers were tallied against them. Meanwhile the Pups netted 235 points, while 244 were scored by opposition fives. The Pups were shaded twice by one-point margins, and once in an overtime session with San Jose Tech, to show how close the 130 race was.

Last Friday night Washington divided a twin bill with Live Oak, dropping the 130 clash 22 to 27, and annexing the varsity game 33 to 20. In other games San Jose Tech and Santa Clara dropped one another from league championships in two one-point decisions at Santa Clara.

In the varsity Santa Clara rose to belt S.J.T. from a co-championship, 34-33, after the Bulldogs had dropped the Santa Clara Cubs into a first place tie with Los Gatos, 25-24.

The California Crop and Livestock Reporting Service is conducted jointly by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture and the California Department of Agriculture.

"I OWN A FARMALL"

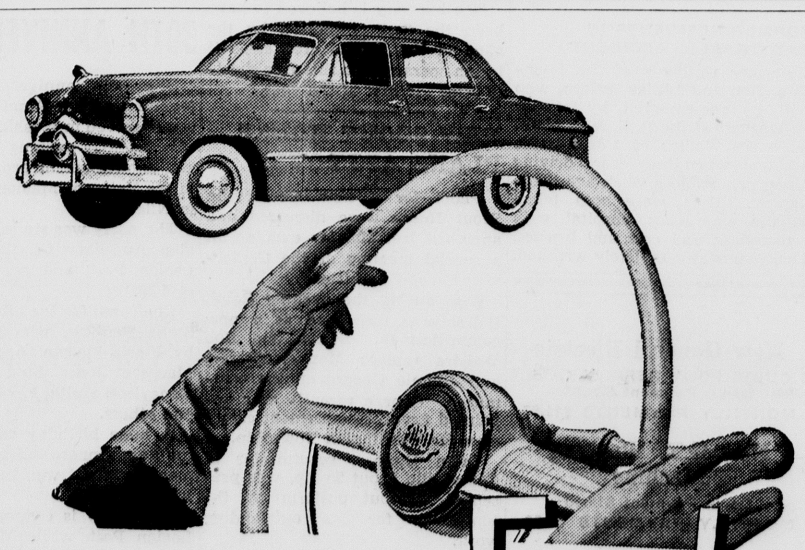

The Original Successful All-Purpose Tractor

● HUNDREDS of thousands of farmers and their sons have found farming more interesting and more profitable since International Harvester announced the Farmall System of Farming over 17 years ago. Today they boast, "I Own a Farmall!"

And today, more than ever, the Farmall System is the safe, common-sense choice. It's sound and modern—no experimenting with untried principles. Here's efficient, low-cost power from an overhead valve engine that is the envy of the industry.

We'd like you to go over these leaders in the tractor field, if you haven't seen or driven one lately. One of these sizes—small A and B, AV for growers who need high clearance, middle-size H, and the big M—will be just right for your acreage and conditions.

WASHINGTON FIVES SPLIT TWIN BILL WITH LIVE OAK

The Washington Huskies and Puppies rang down the curtain on the 1949 high school basketball season last Friday evening, splitting a twin bill with visiting Live Oak hoop quintets.

The Huskies came through with a sound 33-20 victory, while the Pups lost their encounter, 22-27.

Coach Clyde Voorhees emptied the Washington bench against Live Oak in the varsity clash, which became a loose free for all in the later stages. In contrast the 130 encounter was closely fought all the way, with Washington faltering in the third quarter to drop the nod.

The Pups had a tied up ball game at the end of the first half, the score reading 14-all. Live Oak forged ahead to take a 19-14 third quarter edge, however, then coasted on to win. Armando Morlos was the Puppie sparkplug in the tilt, accounting for 12 points on six field goals. Al Castillo contributed seven markers, while Bob Hernandez tallied two points and Ralph Juhl one, to complete Washington scoring.

High point man for Live Oak was Artie Christopher, sharp-eyed forward, who tallied 12 points for the evening.

In the varsity game a third quarter slump spelled doom for Live Oak, as the Huskies increased their 19-16 halftime margin to 24-16 at the end of the third stanza. From there on it was no contest.

Joe Sankene, Bill Ramsey and Frank Vargas netted seven points each to pace the Huskies, while Bill Pereira accounted for six points during the session.

It was the last appearance for eleven varsity players, as Ramsey, Vargas, Gil Martinez, Sankene, Pereira, Gil Orozco, John Evans, Tom Hashimoto, Dave Nelson and Les Kious appeared in their last high school hoopfest. Gene Bramwell, season captain and also a senior, sat the tilt out on the sidelines.

HIGH CHATTER

By MARGARET COLE

The Juniors are in the spotlight this week. The campaign is in full swing for the election of next year's Annual Editor. There are four capable candidates: "Glove Compartment" Betty Jacinto (see "Mailman" in the latest Hatchet), the gal with the voice, Ann Untiedt, Joan Pereira and Shirley Furtado.

A number of people have long suspected that Pat Halliwell has the soul of a poet and now they can say "I told you so." Her contribution to the "Hatchet" is a dilly. She can write slogans, too, and is helping Betty Jacinto in her campaigning.

Don't know what we'd do without rallies to relieve the pressure of the talent that has our high school bursting at the seams. Did you really think that was Perry Como singing "The Pussy Cat Song"?.. Take a blushing bow, Mel Lewis! The cats were our yell-leaders, Juliette, Gerry and Carmen. (Cats! That sounds———. No! Please! I didn't mean it that way!)

If you haven't already figured it out, that dreamy version of "Stardust" was played by Jack Gaunt and Buddy Silva.

The All-Girl orchestra is still with us, praise be! Someone should record their rendition of "Baby Face." Our friends and parents who heard them in the Vodvil have expressed the desire for more of the same. As a matter of fact, most of them enjoyed the whole show so much that they'd like to see it again. Those who didn't see it are still kicking themselves. I bet it could run for a week and play to capacity audiences. Even my little brother, who was almost floored by "Danse Macabre," wants to see Sister and Alma fighting again. He liked Duffie, too, and recognized him instantly in "By the Sea." Reminded him of the good old days of last summer at Elderberry.

Science marches on! At least it's different. Quieter, I mean! Could it be that "Pop" has had a great influence on first period class?

With spring practice officially started, the Huskies baseball squad is right in there pitchin'. Coach Hird is mighty worried about what to do for a pitcher since Gene Bramwell is out of the running, but, as the man in the movie said, "Shucks and Friday, Suh!" Washington Hi can always turn up new talent when it's needed.

LOCAL NIGHT SCHOOL IS 'BIG BUSINESS'

* * * * * * * * *

WIND-UP OF GREATEST YEAR IS NEARING

Washington Evening High School is "big business."

This was revealed today in a report made by Warren E. Gravestock, evening high principal, as plans to open the last new course of the spring semester were forwarded.

A total of 725 persons—more than the total enrollment at Washington Union High School—have registered for and received instruction in the night school's 27 courses offered during the fall and spring.

Twenty-six instructors have taken charge of classes this year, in the greatest night school program offered since the school was started in 1929.

As of the first of March, 701 persons were actually enrolled in night classes. Of these, 392 were men, while 309 were women. They were attending classes in Alvarado and Irvington, as well as at the high school.

The night school, in addition to providing miscellaneous training for adults, carries a full high school curriculum, making it possible for students to earn standard high school diplomas through night school attendance. A total of 14 students are expected to complete required courses and receive diplomas this year, in June commencement exercises. Seven persons graduated from night school last year, while 52 are enrolled in the school for high schol credits.

Another "first" in night school annals was made this year when a college level course was offered locally by arrangement with San Jose State College officials. The class, designed primarily for elementary school instructors, was in visual education, and was under direction of Jack MacGregor, principal of the Newark school.

Most popular classes at present, according to Gravestock, are "Public Speaking and Parliamentary Law," instructed by Don Wolfe. and Folk Dance classes being offered at Alvarado and Irvington. Plans are being forwarded to open a third folk dance class in Mission San Jose, he revealed.

At one time or another, night school courses have been offered in every town in Washington Township, from Warm Springs to the Masonic Home. In this respect the local school is somewhat unique, due to the large area of the township.

Last new course of the spring semester will be a class in building operation and maintenance, due to start March 21.

Thinking Things Over...

By VIVIAN BATMAN

A CHANCE FOR MORE

Some interesting obscure bits of Townshipiana came to light when I mentioned the town of Hillard that is supposed to be located in the township.

We received a bit of information from one source that had about decided us that the town of Hillard and the now-extinct town of Mallard (does anybody know about Mallard, by the way?) were one and the same. Then we looked on a different map, and on it there were BOTH Hillard and Mallard!

So I offer my apologies to the kind reader who called about Hillard—we DON'T know all about it after all!

Perhaps our readers aren't concerned about these apparently dead towns. But my curiosity is aroused. I'm going to pursue the subject.

These towns are obviously being neglected. They offer rare opportunities for the formation of two more Chambers of Commerce. Then we could have NINE Chambers of Commerce in the township.

Thats all we need!

IS IT REAL?

If you want to make an easy dime, take a friend into the new fountain lunch in Niles (used to be Marble's) and get him to bet that the ice cream soda reposing temptingly on top of a case is real. I lost a dime myself. You'd swear the scoops of "ice cream" would melt in your mouth!

POOR LITTLE KITTENS

We heard about a woman this week who accidentally washed three little white kittens.

The door of her Bendix washing machine was open while she filled it with clothes. Stepping away from it for a few minutes, she came back and closed the door, unaware tha the three white kittens had hopped in.

Can you imagine their dismay at being whirled around in a washing machine in a pile of suds and clothes?

Don't be silly! Would YOU come out alive?

STAGE STARS TO PLAY SAN JOSE

Four outstanding attractions are interesting the area in sending reservations to San Jose during the month of March. The San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, conducted by its eminent Pierre Monteux, will take its 100 players to San José for a concert on Saturday night, March 12. "Born Yesterday," the stage comedy hit, will have one performance in San Jose on Sunday night, March 13, starring Jean Parker as the dumb girl friend and Lon Chaney as the millionaire racketeer junkman. "Born Yesterday" has played in London, Paris, Oslo, Holland, the Argentine and Australia, the first international stage hit in a decade.

The De Paur Infantry Chorus of 35 singing Negro veterans of World War II will appear in some of their sensational war songs, and varied songs which have been called the "greatest singing of the season," on Thursday night, March 17.

Maurice Evans, the great actor, will appear in San Jose on Sunday night, March 27, in his current stage hit, "Man and Superman."

Tickets for all events are on sale at the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose auditorium.

THE YOUNGER SET

Sometimes a brother that's about seven years older can make things pretty tough for a little fellow, but not so for young 17-months-old John Edward Cordoza, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cordoza of Decoto, for he's quite able, thank you, to hold his own in any encounters with his eight-year-old brother, Paul. Don't get the idea, however, that the two don't get along, for they enjoy each other's company immensely, as most brothers do—if they'll admit it!

John Edward was born on September 21, 1947. He's a husky lad with a happy disposition—as you can see by the smile—and an inordinate fondness for bread and butter. His mother has to keep things up pretty high, for young John is a "climber." He's never happier than when something tempting is out of reach and he is able to climb for it.

John loves to romp out of doors with his terrier, "Tiny." The two are great company for each other.

John's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fierovich of Watsonville, and Mr. J. S. T. Cordoza, also of Watsonville.

Centerville Couple Observe 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Joseph of 127 Emerson Street, Centerville, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at their home on Wednesday, February 23. A party was given in their honor by their daughter, Elaine, who is a senior at Washington Union High School.

The centerpiece on the buffet table consisted of a silver tray filled with white glimmering gardenias, two tall pink candles on either side of the tray, and a large white cake decorated with pink roses. Mrs. Joseph wore a black suit with a corsage of three baby orchids enclosed with silver ribbon. The couple received many very beautiful gifts given to them by their happy guests.

Those present to help celebrate this festive occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Gonsalves and Florence and Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Andrade and Carol, Mr. and Mrs. George Pimentel, Miss Mary Dias, Mr. Ernest Rodrigues, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dutra, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Souza and Evie, and Miss Margaret Williams, all of Centerville; Mr. Cy Caldeira, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caldeira and Chester, all of Decoto; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brazil and Don and Dave, and Mrs. Rose Peters, all of Hayward; and Mr. William Diangson of Alvarado.

UNUSUAL BOOK DISCUSSED BY DECOTO GROUP MEETING AT HOME OF MRS. MUSICK

By ETHEL AVILLA

One of the most delightful books ever read by the Decoto Discussion Group was "Beyond Sing the Woods" by Trygne Gulbrannsen, which was discussed at last Wednesday's meeting at the home of Mrs. L. W. Musick.

Gulbrannsen is a Norwegian author who, so far as is known, is still living in Norway. In this story he depicts the lives of an aristocratic Norwegian family living on their huge hill estates. Gulbrannsen possesses a picturesqueness of style plus a magic fairy tale like quality that makes this book beautiful.

A delicious two course luncheon was served by the hostess at noon. Guests were Mrs. Dorothy F. Roberts, county librarian, and Mrs. Paul Merrill.

Mrs. Roberts extended an invitation to the group to be her luncheon guests at the International Kitchen in April. The group will make a study of Portugal under the leadership of Mrs. Katherine Goularte.

LOCAL CHILDREN HAVE HEARING DEFECTS

* * * * * * * * *

COUNTY REVEALS RESULTS OF TESTS HERE

Two Otological Clinics have been held in Washington Township this winter as a result of cooperation between the Alameda County Health Department, the Alameda School Department, parents, and physicians.

A leading ear, nose and throat specialist conducted the conferences, assisted by public health nurses and volunteer women from Mrs. Mary Roderiques and Mrs. Lil-Mrs. Mary Rorrigues and Mrs. Lillian Maloney of Centerville, Mrs. Margaret McWhinney of Irvington, Mrs. Lucille Brown of Niles, and Mrs. Mary Cardoza, Mrs. Betty Margarido, Mrs. Mary Lucero, Mrs. Dorothy Musick and Mrs. Evelyn Joseph of Decoto. Conferences were held at the Washington Township Country Club.

Experience in California has shown that from four to ten per cent of children tested for hearing have shown a hearing loss. Results of tests in Washington Township indicate that the number of children with some hearing loss is in this range.

A community health program includes finding the children with hearing difficulty and seeing that they receive preventive or corrective care. Often the classroom teacher is the first to notice symptoms of hearing trouble. She may observe that a child is inattentive and frequently makes mistakes carrying out instruction. She may notice faulty articulation or failure to answer when questioned; a running ear or a complaint of pain, head noises or other ear trouble. Corrective and preventive measures include referral to a physician for diagnosis and treatment, provision of hearing aids or special instruction in lip reading and protection from infectious diseases which are likely to cause further ear complaints.

In the January-February issue of the "Southern Pacific Bulletin" is a picture of Charles N. Myrick, formerly of the township and now living in San Mateo and driving for the PMT.

Myrick, who was known here as "Jim" or still better as "Red" is shown accepting a safe driving award on behalf of his fellow workers from the manager of the San Francisco Chapter, National Safety Council. This makes three times out of four that the San Francisco area drivers have succeeded in winning the National Safety Council's inter-city fleet safety contest.

Myrick has been with the Southern Pacific for twelve or thirteen years, exclusive of the years when he was in the war. His mother is Mrs. C. N. Myrick of Centerville.

United States commercial production of almonds, filberts and English walnuts centers on the Pacific Coast.

By LOIS BOTTENBERG

Lois Bottenberg

FROM STOCKTON

From Stockton for a week to visit her mother, Mrs. Joseph Medeiros, came Mamie and Luther Cann. Mrs. Mereiros has been quite ill but is now able to be out and around.

THE 'NEW LOOK'

The home of Margie and Joe Reis is taking on a "new look" for from a frame house it is being converted into a stucco.

MOVING TO NILES

Mrs. Mary Costa and son, Manuel, are moving to Niles in the very near future. They were former employees of Dominican Convent.

ALL BOOKED UP

Between rainy spells the merry-go-round and other pieces of equipment at Linda Vista Park are being put in readiness for another very full summer program. From Easter on till fall nearly every available date has been taken by one lodge or another, or private parties, so there will be plenty of activities around Mission San Jose again this year.

IN THE HOSPITAL

Mr. Hal Tibbetts of Palm Avenue has been in the hospital for awhile where he had a piece of bone removed from his hip to reinforce his bad arm which keeps fracturing every so often. But Mrs. Homemaker—

What about prices that are not in the ads?

Checking food ads is a good way of learning about low prices. But the ads can't tell the whole story. At best they include only a small percentage of the items on your entire shopping list. So savings made on "specials" can easily be wiped out unless your other purchases are made at the right prices.

That's why the basic part of Safeway's pricing policy says that every item—we repeat—every item must be priced low. Consider what this means to you. It means savings right down the line... not just on our advertised specials, but on everything.

You'll find too, that Safeway is quick to pass on to customers the benefits of any reductions made possible by changes in market conditions. Watch for special markers on our shelves, calling attention to reductions.

Remember, it's easy to cancel savings from "specials" unless other prices are low, too. So start today to save at Safeway, where all prices are always low.

WORLD TRAVELER WILL SPEAK HERE

Paul W. Travis, traveler, recently returned from a trip to Italy, Greece and Behind Iron Curtain in Yugo-Slavia, and eight other countries, will speak at 7:30 p.m. at Ford Hall, Niles, next Tuesday, March 15.

To illustrate his talk he will project in natural color pictures which he took on his recent 26 months' abroad, when he made a special study of the Italian and Greek situation as it applies to the war between Communism and Christianity. He makes observations regarding the Mindezenty case, and the situation in Italy that are really surprising. His picture collection is unquestionably the most illuminating and interesting ever taken of this area.

While in Vatican City, Mr. Travis had two private audiences with Pope Pius and received the Pope's medal and autograph.

In one of Mr. Travis' audiences was President Truman, Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder, Clark Gifford and a total of fifteen of the presidential party.

Mr. Travis comes under the auspices of the C.S.O. and his travelogue is free. An offering will be taken at the close for the work of the Christian Service Organization.

BUSY WEEK-END

The E. A. Millers had a busy week-end with visits from several friends: Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brown of Hayward and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roderick. From Centerville came Mr. Miller's sister and her family, the Harry Scotts. The guests were on hand to celebrate the news that Pfc. Gaylor Miller is expected home from Kiessler Field, Miss., sometime in April. Gaylor's bride, the former Cleo Halliford, has just returned from Texas and is staying with relatives in the township.

FROM RICHMOND

Enjoying our pleasant weather and the hospitality of the O. B. Stangers were visitors from Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Rude.

ALMOST KIDNAPPED

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Marshall, Tommy Jr. and Doug Marshall drove to Sacramento over the week-end to visit relatives. Tommy Jr., on his first long dsitance trip, made the acquaintance and captured the hearts of his great-grandmother, Mrs. Eugenia Irving, and several aunts, uncles and cousins who were most reluctant to let him come home on Sunday.

NICE RECOVERY

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Murphy and family, formerly of Canyon Heights, spent last Sunday visiting friends here. We were all delighted to see that Peggy has shed her leg cast and is recovering nicely from her bad fall down a flight of ice-covered steps at her school in Sonora.

FULL-FLEDGED MEMBER

Did you notice Ginger Mottershaw's "state of nerves" last Monday in anticipation of her initiation into the Theta Rho Girls' Club? Well, it's over, painlessly, and Ginger is a full-fledged member and so delighted with the club that she's urging all her friends to apply for admission.

NO COOPERATION

The Clifford Whites and family enjoyed a long week-end in Antioch, visiting Clifford's mother, Mr. Howard, formerly of the Heights. It was a fishing trip, too, but the fish refused to cooperate.

CENTER THEATER GETS NEW LOGES

Center theater goers will have a special treat in store in the near future, according to Manager Gordon Morris.

He revealed installation of new chairs will be made in the loge section soon, embodying all features needed for "the world's most comfortable seating."
